

ANSWER QUESTION TWO QUESTIONS FROM EACH SECTION

Section A

Question One

1. Mismanagement of funds is a serious problem in some Swazi schools. Explain how proper budgeting can be used as a financial management tool in schools. (25 marks)
2. Monitoring and evaluation are some of the key aspects of managing schools. Explain how each of these managing tools can be helpful in improving school management. (25 marks)
3. Collegiality and collaboration are important educational aspects in improving teaching and learning in schools. Discuss how these aspects improve classroom practices. (25 marks)

SECTION B. ANSWER ANY TWO QUESTIONS FROM THIS SECTION

4. The Swaziland Education Act of 1983 and the Corruption Act 2006 are some of the key aspects of managing educational organisations in Swaziland. Explain how these acts help in improving practice in schools. (25 marks)

5. Continuing Teacher Professional Development is one of the key aspects of improving education in Swaziland. Critically discuss this statement. (25 marks)

6. Research is one of the managing tools for improving educational organisational practice in Swazi education system. Explain how research could be used for improving management in schools. (25 marks)

END OF THE PAPER