

UNIVERSITY OF SWAZILAND
FACULTY OF HEALTH SCIENCE
DEPARTMENT OF MIDWIFERY

SUPPLEMENTARY EXAMINATION PAPER, JULY 2005

TITLE OF PAPER : ETHICS AND PROFESSIONAL PRACTICE OF MIDWIFERY

COURSE CODE : MID 104

TIME ALLOWED : TWO (2) HOURS

TOTAL MARKS : 75

INSTRUCTIONS : 1. ANSWER ALL QUESTIONS.
2. BEGIN EVERY NEW QUESTION ON A NEW PAGE.

THIS QUESTION PAPER SHOULD NOT BE OPENED UNTIL PERMISSION HAS BEEN GRANTED BY THE INVIGILATOR.

SUPPLEMENTARY EXAMINATION

MID 104 Mid 104 Ethics and Professional Practice of Midwifery

QUESTION 1

- 1.1 The screening of pregnant women for the presence of the HIV has just begun in the country
- 1.2 Describe the ethical and legal issues associated with the provision of this service (5)
- 1.3 Describe the services provided in the Prevention of Mother to Child Transmission of HIV (PMTCT) clinics (5)
- 1.4 Describe the benefits of this clinic to the woman and the baby (5)
- 1.4.1 Describe the ethical and legal issues associated with the provision of PMTCT services in Swaziland (5)
- 1.5 Describe the rights of clients that must be observed by the nurse-midwife in the provision of voluntary testing and counseling (VCT) services. (5)

TOTAL 25

QUESTION 2

- 2.1 In Swaziland, it is highly recommended that all nurses, also enroll for basic education in Midwifery.
- 2.1.1 Define the concept midwife (2)
- 2.1.2 Describe the scope of practice of a midwife as presented in the WHO's definition of a midwife (8)
- 2.2 Briefly discuss the development of midwifery in Swaziland (10)
- 2.3 The World Health Organization's definition of a midwife, also describes the setting where a midwife may legally practice. Identify the practice settings as presented in the WHO definition of a midwife (2)
- 1.1.5 Identify six categories of professionals that midwives collaborate with in at hospital (3)

Total 25 marks

QUESTION 3

Describe ten rights of childbearing women (20)

QUESTION 4

Describe the components of the midwifery model of care (5)

TOTAL 75 MARKS