Question one

Regionalism has been seen as many African countries as a way to achieve economic development.

Discuss the above fully, making reference to ECOWAS and any one other African regional organisation. In your answer discuss the different levels of integration from the lowest to the highest.

(25 Marks)

Question two

Critically discuss standard setting by the International Monetary Fund and the World Bank and how, in their mandates, they compliment each other.

(25 Marks)

Question Three

Your country is a member of the Southern African Customs Union (SACU), the Common Market for Eastern and Southern Africa (COMESA), as well as the Southern African Development Community (SADC). The Minister responsible for international co-operation has asked you to write a brief outlining the benefits derived by your country from each of these organisations and giving an opinion on whether it would be prudent to terminate membership in either of these organisations so that your country retains membership in only one.

(25 Marks)

Question four

The main role of the Security Council of the United Nations is to maintain international peace and security. In carrying out this mandate, the Security Council makes law.

Critically examine this statement.

(25 Marks)

Question five

“International organisations were established, in part, to improve multilateral treaty making processes.”

Critically discuss.
