QUESTION 1

The Mfabantfu community has a recurring problem during their ploughing session. Every year when it is this session it so happens that some members of the community have not removed their herd of cattle from the ploughing fields. They have approached the Chief of the area at the Umphakatsi and through his Libandla has advised them of a need to have proper legislation to address this recurring problem. The Community has approached you to advise them on how they can be able to achieve their wish to have a law passed through Parliament that would solve their problem.

Advise the community concerning what should happen up until the law is promulgated.
