Question 1

Two suspects entered a shop in Mbabane, Swaziland, which was unarmoured and unguarded, and they entered the shop unarmed at night. One day after they had knocked off from work they pretended as if they were leaving the work premises for their respective homes. However, they hid in the nearby bush. In the middle of the night they attacked the security guard by tying him with a rope and they broke into the shop and took money as well as some items. The matter was reported to the police the following day and it was widely reported in the media. After four days the suspects sold the stolen items to one of the businessmen in Mbabane who was a neighbor to Vicky Stores.

What charges can be preferred against the two suspects?
